Of Interest Here. A beautiful wedding took place Wednesday evening at Denmore Park, Md., the home of the bride, where Miss Ella Vincent Kuhns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vincent Kuhns, was married to Ensign Newton Lord Nichols, U. S. N., son of Rev. and Mrs. George Ellwood Nichols, of New Haven, Conn.

The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock by Rev. M. J. Rordan. The house was decorated with June roses and greens, and an orchestra furnished the music. The best man was Ensign Emanuel A. Lohquist, U. S. N., and the ushers were Lieutenant Wilbur Thynge, U. S. N., and Ensign Donald T. Hunt, U. S. N., and Ensign Frank R. Berg, U. S. N. They wore the uniform of their rank.

The maid of honor was Miss Mary Emily Caspard, daughter of Chaplain William C. Caspard, U. S. N., of the Naval Training Station, Newport, whose marriage to Assistant Paymaster Dallas D. Wainwright, Jr., U. S. N., will take place in the autumn. Her gown was of pale blue satin, draped with crystal-studded net, and she carried yellow roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Marie Fielding Dashiell, of New York; Miss Sallie Warfield Cockey and Miss Louise Dill, of Baltimore. They wore gowns of gold-colored satin, combined with crystal-studded net, and they carried white roses. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white crepe meter, trimmed with duchesse and point lace. Her veil was of tulle, fastened with a bandeau of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley and white orchids. She wore a necklace of pearls, an heirloom in her family.

A reception followed, after which the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding journey. On their return they will be in Philadelphia, where the bridegroom is stationed.

To Spend Summer in the North. Mrs. William E. Turner, of 115 East Franklin Street, will leave on June 9 for Vermont, where she will spend some time with friends. Later Mrs. Turner will visit in the Adirondacks and the White Mountains, going to Canada for the months of August and September.

Leaves for Lynchburg. Mrs. E. T. Robinson, of 512 East Franklin Street, expects to leave this week for Lynchburg. While there she will be the guest of Mrs. Don P. Halsey, and going from Lynchburg, she will visit Mrs. Bruce Hunt in Roanoke. Mrs. Robinson will spend the remainder of the summer at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.

Palmore-Gwathmey. Mrs. Abby Manly Gwathmey, of 1105 East Clay Street, has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Alberta, to Linnaeus Nash Palmore, the ceremony to take place on the evening of June 21, at 8 o'clock, in the First Baptist Church. Both the bride and groom are widely related throughout Virginia, and a number of guests from all parts of the State will come to Richmond for the wedding.

Roosevelt and Members of Reception Committee

COUNTRY WAITING TO GREET COLONEL

Roosevelt's Home-Coming Will Be Made Memorable Occasion.

MONSTER RECEPTION

Never Before Has Private Citizen Been Accorded Such a Welcome.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] New York, June 5.—On Friday next Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will sail from Southampton, England, aboard the steamship Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, and begin the last leg of his wonderful and spectacular journey, which will end when the ship docks in this harbor eight days later.

Since he emerged from the African jungle the latter part of March he has been the guest of nearly every European ruler, and honors have been conferred on him which were never before accorded a private American citizen with the exception of General Grant. As a fitting climax to his triumphal tour, a monster reception has been planned by representative citizens of the nation, and when the colonel arrives on June 18 he will be welcomed by thousands of his countrymen from every section of the United States, representing all classes. Plans have been made on a most elaborate scale, and the reception promises to be as brilliant as the historical home-coming of Admiral Dewey with his victorious fleet.

Parade of Harbor Craft. A parade of harbor craft, followed by Mayor Gaynor will deliver the principal address, and a triumphal march up Broadway and Fifth Avenue to Fifty-ninth Street, with the famous Rough Riders as an escort, are the principal features of the program.

On account of his position as Chief Executive, President Taft will not be present, but a large number of Senators and Representatives, together with the Cabinet officers, will be on hand. Organizations of every kind and description and from every part of the country will be present in a body, and the city will be overrun with thousands of visitors.

Every available craft in New York harbor was chartered as early as the middle of May and (boats and scows are at a premium. Some of the larger organizations, such as the Republican Club of New York, have chartered regular coast line steamers on which to go down the bay and welcome the colonel after his absence of fifteen months.

Although many Republican statesmen will be present, the reception will be strictly of a non-partisan character. The reception committee is composed of 2,500 of New York's leading citizens, both Republicans and Democrats, and nothing of a political nature will be included in the program.

According to the present plans, the vessel on which Colonel Roosevelt and his family will make the return journey across the Atlantic will reach Quarantine at 9 o'clock on the morning of June 18. One hour before a selected number of the reception committee will leave the Battery in a revenue cutter and will proceed to Quarantine, where the colonel and his family will be taken off in a tug.

Gaily decorated craft of every description that have been chartered by clubs and private parties will line both sides of the harbor, and after the cutter with the colonel aboard passes by they will fall in the rear. Nearly every big craft in the harbor will have a band abroad, and the noisy procession will make its way up the harbor amid the screaming of whistles and the cheering of the crowds on the shores of Twenty-Third Street, where they will turn round and steam back to the Battery.

On Historic Spot. The colonel will go ashore at the historic spot at the lower end of the island, where he will receive a hearty welcome from the assembled thousands. In an enclosure in the center of the park will be 200 distinguished guests, composed of Senators, Representatives, ambassadors and numerous personal friends of the colonel. Surrounding this enclosure will be an outer reserved space, which will be occupied by 2,500 prominent men and the members of the reception committee. The rest of the park will be open to the public.

Here Mayor Gaynor, of New York, will formally welcome the colonel to his native land, and several other brief speeches will be made by prominent men.

It was originally intended to conclude the reception with a monster parade, and invitations were issued to various organizations throughout the country. Within a few days, however, the committee was flooded with so many applications that the parade feature had to be abandoned. Organizations from Maine to California and from the Gulf to the Great Lakes requested a place in the line of march, and if the project had been carried out, the procession would have extended from the Battery to the Harbor, for the home of the groom, in Redden River and back again, a distance of twenty miles, and the people who had traveled hundreds of miles to see Roosevelt would have been deprived of the pleasure.

In order to overcome this obstacle so that no one would be offended, a unique arrangement was adopted by the committee. All organizations that wished to participate in the parade will be assigned certain blocks along the line of march; for instance, one or two blocks will be assigned to some visiting club, and the next to the public, and so on.

Procession Small. The procession itself will be comparatively small, and will be led by the mounted police of New York, who will be followed by the police band on foot. Then will come the escort of 500 Rough Riders, under the command of Robert Hunter, of Oklahoma City, president of the organization. Colonel Roosevelt will come next in his carriage, and his carriage will be followed by a long procession of vehicles containing the members of the committee and speakers.

Following the exorcises, the procession will make its way up Broadway to Fourth Street, where it will turn into Fifth Avenue and proceed up that thoroughfare to Fifty-ninth Street, where it will disperse. The route will be lined with visiting organizations, and their bands will strike up as the procession approaches and continue until it passes by.

In order that Mrs. Roosevelt may share in the colonel's honors and the procession from an advantageous point, Mrs. Donald McLean, president of the Daughters of the American Revolution, has cabled her an invitation to be the guest of honor at a luncheon at Sherry's, to be tendered by prominent members of various female organizations.

Following the parade, Colonel Roosevelt will join his family, and in all probability will proceed to his home.

Mark Center Lady Tells How She Suffered, and Could Not Stand, But at Last Got Relief From Cardui.

Mark Center, O.—"I have been greatly benefited," writes Mrs. S. J. Kintner, of this place, "by taking Cardui. Before trying Cardui, I could not be on my feet half an hour at a time. Now I can work all day, and sleep well. The pain in my right side is all gone, and I am in better health than I have been for five years. I recommend Cardui to all my friends. I am also giving Cardui to my young daughter."

Letters from all over the country come in the daily mail, telling what happy results have been derived from the use of Cardui, the helping, healing tonic for women.

Its virtues are due to the specific, curative qualities of the herbs of which it is composed, and its thousands of lady users appreciate its harmlessness and non-mineral, non-intoxicating, beneficial curative qualities.

Half a century of success in the treatment and cure of the special womanly troubles, for which it is peculiarly fitted, is a bond that guarantees the merit of Cardui beyond all question.

Isn't it reasonable to suppose that it will benefit you?

Try it.
